

With effect from 25th April 2010, members of True Spa and True 'Est will have access to a holistic range of health, beauty, anti-aging and wellness services as a result of a strategic collaboration between the HealthTrends Group and the True Group.

Subtle Senses Pte Ltd and HealthTrends Wellness Clinic, both owned by the HealthTrends Group, will assume the business operations of True Spa and True 'Est respectively. The HealthTrends Group will honour all current True Spa and True 'Est members' packages. True Spa and True 'Est members will continue to enjoy the same range of facilities at the current premises of Ngee Ann City and Cuppage Terrace, and utilize the same services within their existing packages under the brand names of Subtle Senses and HealthTrends Wellness Clinic.

The HealthTrends Group has always been on the forefront of the medical, aesthetics and wellness industry in Singapore and Hong Kong. The Group operates reputable aesthetic brand names like The Sloane Clinic® and Astique Medical® in Singapore, as well as the CliniCentral brand in Hong Kong.

Award-winning Subtle Senses has received many accolades since its inception in 2003, including 5 Silver awards at SPRING Singapore's Excellent Service Award, as well as the "Promising Brand" award at Singapore Prestige Brand Award 2007, and the "Established Brand" award in 2009. With its high standards of service, members can rest assure that they will continue to have access to premium facilities and services.

To welcome all True Spa and True 'Est members into this exciting collaboration, the HealthTrends Group is pleased to offer a wellness screening e-voucher for all members!
